

PROGRAM OF SOUTHEASTERN STATES INTRA-REGIONAL EXTENSION CONFERENCE
Alabama Polytechnic Institute
Auburn, Alabama
February 15-16, 1940

Conference Room, Duncan Hall

Thursday Forenoon - February 15

P. O. Davis, Director of Extension, Alabama, Presiding.

- 9 - 12:30 How Are We Meeting Our New Responsibilities as Extension Supervisors?
E. H. White, Director of Extension, Mississippi.
Miss Etna McGaugh, State Home Demonstration Agent, Alabama.

Discussion.

What Must the District Agent Do To Relate More Closely the Extension Responsibilities of the County Agent to Programs of Other Government Agencies?

Miss Mary E. Keown, State Home Demonstration Agent, Florida.
A. H. Ward, District Agent, South Carolina.

What Must the Specialist Do?

L. I. Skinner, Assistant Director of Extension, Georgia.

Discussion:

L. B. Massey, District Agent, South Carolina.
Miss Olive Dowell, District Agent, Mississippi.
W. T. Nettles, District Agent, Florida.
Emmett Sizemore, District Agent, Alabama.

Thursday Afternoon - February 15

- 2 - 4:30 . Personnel Problems.

Setting and Maintaining Supervisory Standards for County Extension Agents:

J. L. Lawson, Administrative Assistant, Alabama.
Miss Mae Creswell, State Home Demonstration Agent, Mississippi.

Discussion:

Might involve Qualifications, Salary Scales, Promotions;
How Are We Going To Use the Assistant County Agents;
Supervisory Contacts and Relationships.

What Can District Agents Do To Strengthen County Extension Agent Supervision:

C. C. Smith, District Agent, Mississippi.
Miss Ethyl Holloway, District Agent, Florida.

Discussion:

Might include the Principal Functions of a District Supervisor, and Objectives of Supervision.

SECTION 1
EXHIBIT 100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000

100-100000-100000
100-100000-100000

Thursday Evening - February 15

E. H. White, Director of Extension, Mississippi, Presiding.

7 - 9 p. m. The New National Program for Conservation Resources.
 J. L. Boatman, Chief, Division of Subject Matter, Extension Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

What Part Will the Extension Service Play in Agricultural Conservation:

Reuben Brigham, Assistant Director of Extension Work. U. S.
Department of Agriculture.

What Are the Functions of the Extension Organization and Policy Committee of the Association of Land-Grant Colleges, and How Can the States Aid the Committee With Its Work?

Discussion leaders:

D. W. Watkins, Director of Extension, South Carolina.
Miss Lurline Collier, State Home Demonstration Agent, Georgia.

Friday Forenoon - February 16

A. P. Spencer, Vice Director of Extension, Florida, Presiding.

9 - 12:30 State Program Development.

What Do We Mean by a Coordinated State Program and How Do We Get It?
D. W. Watkins, Director of Extension, South Carolina.

Discussion:

Might include The Functions and Responsibilities of Men and Women
District Agents in County Program Development.

Fundamental Principles and Procedures Involved in Planning County
Agricultural Programs:

L. C. Westbrook, District Agent, Georgia.
Miss Sallie Spann Swann, District Agent, Mississippi.

Discussion:

Might involve such topics as What Is the Relation of County Extension Program to the "County Agricultural Program"; How and by Whom Should Major Extension Activities Be Determined;
Recent Improvements in Program Development Procedure Learned
Through Experience During Past Two Years; Is Individual Farm and Home Planning a Desirable Activity?

Friday Afternoon - February 16

D. W. Watkins, Director of Extension, South Carolina, Presiding.

1 - 3:30 Land Use Planning.

Progress Being Made on Correlation of Local Planning Activities of the Agencies Working with Farm People on Related Farm and Home Problems:

W. S. Brown, Director of Extension, Georgia.

Miss Lonnie I. Landrum, State Home Demonstration Agent, South Caroline.

Discussion:

How May We Use Discussion Groups in Bringing About a Better Understanding of Our Farm and Home Problems and the National Programs for Agriculture?

Duncan Wall, Chief, Regional Contact Section, Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

Adjourn.

1925-26

Annual Report - February 1926

E. W. Nelson, Director of Extension, State College, Washington.

1 - 2135

Land Use Planning.

Progress being made on investigation of local planning activities of the American people with their people on National Forest and State Lands. E. W. Nelson, Director of Extension, State College, Washington. This includes 1. National Forest Lands Investigation Report, 1925. 2. National Forest Lands Investigation Report, 1926.

Discussion:

How far we are from the American people in planning their land use. The National Forest and State Lands are being used for various purposes. The National Forest is being used for timber, grazing, and recreation. The State Lands are being used for agriculture, industry, and recreation. The National Forest and State Lands are being used for various purposes. The National Forest is being used for timber, grazing, and recreation. The State Lands are being used for agriculture, industry, and recreation.

Adjourn.